

Designing with Contrast

Homework #19

Using only your letterform, create two typographic designs in the areas indicated on the homework sheet. Both problems are formalistic exercises in seeing letterforms' infinite possibilities as communication vehicles. The primary intention here is to explore various aspects of the fundamental design principle of contrast.

- Negative-positive relationships
- Scale

By experimenting with type within the parameters designers can add to their repertoires a design tricks.

